SPH's Chinese Media Group sponsors fireworks show on Chinese New Year Eve, to give out more than 10,000 tickets

Singapore, 5 November 2018 – Singapore Press Holdings' (SPH) Chinese Media Group (CMG) will be sponsoring the Fireworks Spectacular show at River Hongbao 2019 on the eve of Chinese New Year (CNY) to commemorate Singapore Bicentennial.

Apart from spectacular fireworks, there will be a host of exciting performances to entertain audiences from 9.45pm to past 12 midnight as part of the CNY countdown show on 4 February 2019.

To mark Singapore's bicentennial next year, River Hongbao 2019 will explore themes on Singapore's longer history as an open and multicultural place through time. The 2019 edition will also feature the most spectacular fireworks in the event's 33-year history. Award-winning fireworks experts from Australia, China, USA and Italy will gather to offer spectators a splendid array of fireworks and choreography to light up River Hongbao 2019.

CMG will start to issue free tickets for seats on the floating platform to the countdown event from 7 November, 9am onwards. More than 10,000 tickets will be given out to subscribers of Lianhe Zaobao, Lianhe Wanbao and Shin Min Daily News, zaobao.sg, U-Weekly readers, as well as listeners of UFM100.3 and 96.3 Hao FM.

On 6 November, the three Chinese newspapers, zaobao.sg and the radio stations will publish or broadcast a special code for readers to register for the free tickets via the SPH Rewards mobile app on a first-come-first-served basis. Each person is entitled to claim up to four tickets.

To reserve tickets for migrant workers and volunteers

CMG has been a co-organiser of the annual River Hongbao since 1986. The additional sponsorship of the special fireworks display on CNY eve is to reward CMG's loyal audience. CMG will also reserve some tickets for migrant workers and work with volunteer organizations to extend the tickets to volunteers and their family members.

Ms Lee Huay Leng, Head of CMG, said: "As we celebrate the Lunar New Year and look back at Singapore's history, we want to commemorate migrant workers who have toiled and contributed to Singapore's success. Many migrant workers are still contributing to the building of modern Singapore and we wish to express our gratitude to them on CNY eve.

As there are also many volunteers who have been quietly helping the under-privileged and contributing to our society, we would like to show our appreciation by inviting them and their family members to enjoy the fireworks show and countdown the Lunar New Year with us.”

Chairman of the River Hongbao organising committee and Jurong GRC MP Mr Ang Wei Neng, said: “The bicentennial edition of River Hongbao will be unique, special and memorable, particularly the spectacular fireworks display that will be suitable to Singaporeans of different races, cultures and age groups. Collect your fireworks tickets from SPH Rewards mobile app and stand a chance to enjoy a wonderful countdown to the next Chinese New Year.”

The bicentennial edition of River Hongbao will be held from 3 to 10 February at The Float @ Marina Bay. Visitors will get to enjoy the fireworks, which will last for at least three minutes, on all eight nights of River Hongbao. On four special nights (3, 4, 9 and 10 February), visitors will be treated to 12 minutes of fireworks display.

The committee gave out free tickets for three nights of the River Hongbao 2019 Fireworks Spectacular earlier and all tickets were fully redeemed within five hours after its release on 20 October.

Apart from fireworks, visitors to River Hongbao can also admire giant lantern displays, take part in interactive games, sample a variety of cuisines and also catch stage performances nightly.

How to obtain free admission tickets

Members of the public who are keen to get hold of tickets to catch the Fireworks Spectacular on 4 February 2019 (CNY Eve) can register via the SPH Rewards App from 7 November, 9am onwards. Tickets will be given out on a first-come-first-served basis.

Members of the CMG Readers Club can register directly via the SPH Rewards App. Readers or listeners who are not direct subscribers of SPH products can register via the SPH Rewards App by entering a registration code that will be published or announced by the respective publications or radio stations on 6 November.
